

Welcome to... GERMAN UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITES

From the German Raetian Border to Ironworks, from Imperial Cathedral to Bauhaus...

German UNESCO World Heritage Sites from all epochs.

Roman Fortifications at the Porto Nigra in Trier, Cistercian architecture in Maulbronn, medieval timber-framed houses in Quedlinburg, high Gothic architecture in Cologne Cathedral and Hanseatic atmosphere in Stralsund and Wismar.

In addition, extensive garden and park grounds in Potsdam and Worlitz and landscape ensembles on the Rhine and Elbe Rivers.

The German UNESCO World Heritage Sites mirror the development of the economic and intellectual life in German speaking countries from ancient times to the 21st Century.
